Dear Pastor and Church,

God works in unusual ways! It has been said so many times that it seems worn out. Perhaps it just seems unusual to us because we do not know the end from the beginning as God does. Such is the case with Miss Atalie Habal and Brother Adam Hall. Atalie is a single young lady sent out of our church to serve the Lord as a missionary in Thailand. She has been doing a great job learning the language and witnessing. Already souls have been saved because of her efforts. In the providence of God, a young man has come into Atalie's life, Bro. Adam Hall. He has asked her hand in marriage, and they are to be married, Lord willing, April 5, 2014. Their plans are to be married, go on a honeymoon, and visit some churches to raise additional support for 2-4 months, and then return to Thailand for missionary service in August, 2014. It may not be the norm, but it is wonderful that these two want to serve the Lord together in Thailand.

Both Adam and Atalie have the blessings of their parents for their union, and they have the support of their church family here in Hawaii. It is my privilege to wholeheartedly recommend Adam and Atalie (soon to be Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hall) to all Fundamental Independent Baptist Churches for consideration of missionary support. Atalie is a delightful young lady who has been a joy to her parents and an inspiration to all believers. Adam has served honorably in the United States Air Force and South Carolina Air National Guard and has many leadership qualities. His spiritual journey is a testament to the grace of God. Adam senses God's call to preach as well as the leadership of the Lord to serve in Thailand. I know he will be an asset to God's work there. Adam and Atalie will make a great missionary team, and I trust many souls will come to Christ as a result of their missionary endeavor. They would be honored to be a part of your mission program as one of your missionary families.

As you know, Thailand is one of the least evangelized nations in the World. This fact, along with the gifts and commitments that Adam and Atalie have made, gives us great cause for rejoicing in having the privilege of being their sending church. We sincerely thank all of you who will prayerfully consider making them a part of your missionary family. For those of you who already support Atalie, I want to express my gratitude and ask that you continue to support both her and Adam as they join hands in God's work. If you should have any further questions about their ministry, you can always contact Adam, or, if you like, you may contact me via my cell phone at 808-721-7880. May God bless you as you strive to get the Gospel to your community and to the "regions beyond."

Aloha,

Pastor Skip Woodfin
